

• Practical: 1 •

(Creating account, repository on Github and cloning repository in Github page)

(1) Creating Github account:

STEPS:-

- (1) Go to <https://github.com/join> in a web browser.
- (2) Enter your personal details like (username, password and email address)
- (3) Then click on the create an account button. It's below the form.
- (4) After that complete the captcha, puzzle. (follow the instruction to confirm that you are a human.)
- (5) Then click the choose button for your desired plan. (Free, Pro, Team and Enterprise)

- (6) After that click the Verify email address button in the message from Github.
- (7) Then Review your plan selection and click Continue.
- (8) select your preference and click Submit.
- (9) Now, Then account has been Created.

(2) Creating repository on Github:-

Steps:

(a) Step 1: Create a Github account

(Pick a username, enter your email, and click sign up for github)

(b) Step 2: Create a new repository

To create a new repository for, select New Repository from the + sign drop down menu.

(c) Step 3: Enter a name for your repository. (e.g. "Demo") and click Create Repository.

(3) Creating Cloning repository :

Steps:

(1). In the file menu, click Clone Repository.

(2). click the tab that corresponds to the location of the repository you want to clone.

(3). Choose the repository you want to clone from the list.

(4). Click choose... and navigate to a local path where you want to clone the repository.

(5). Click Done.